Position:

Support and Amend

Explanation of the position, including any recommended amendments:

HB 4648 restores parental rights to a mother who has voluntarily given them up to facilitate an adoption which later falls through due to a putative father's objection. The bill should include the following amendments:

HB 4648

- Restate portions of Section 39(3) to read:

(3) If the court determines that the parental rights of the putative father shall not be terminated under subsection (1), the court shall do all of the following:

- (a) Terminate the temporary placement made under section 23d of this chapter.
- (b) Return custody of the child to the mother.
- (c) Deny the adoption and dismiss the pending proceeding.

Q (4) The fact that the mother executed ...[as in proposed bill].

(5) If the parental rights of the mother are terminated under this chapter or other law and if her parental rights are not restored under section 62 of this chapter, if the court awards custody of a child born out of wedlock to the putative father . . .

- Add the following to the end of (5):

If the parental rights of the mother are restored, this subsection shall not apply, rather subsections (3) and (4) shall govern manner in which the court terminates the temporary placement and places the child.

The Family Law Section supports this bill with those amendments.
